

My life

"Wah , wah" I screamed as I was born in hospital.

The next day, me and my mum could go out of the hospital and when my dad first saw me, he was excited because I was his first child. The next day, me and my mum keep going back and forward to my dad's family and my mum's family.

I always used to get spoiled by my dad's family but my mum's family always gave me money.

Then I started to say "Mummy and Daddy" and they were so happy.

My little sister was born but I wasn't that happy because she got the attention but not me.

Then my other sister was born but this time I didn't care about the attention.

Next I went to U.S.A for a wedding and it was so cool.

I started school and then moved to Wesley and I met my friend and we keep calling each other sister.

Now I am still in New Zealand hoping I can get a good job.
